

Being Grateful

Having met the Savior, therefore, the lepers earnestly besought Him to free them for their misery, and called Him Master, that is, Teacher. No one pitied them when suffering this malady. But He Who had appeared on earth for this very reason, and had become man that He might show pity to all, He was moved with compassion for them, and had mercy on them. And why did He not rather say, I will, be you cleansed; as he did in the case of another leper, but commanded them rather to show themselves to the priests? It was because the law gave directions to this effect to those who were delivered from leprosy (Leviticus. 14:2); for it commanded them to show themselves to the priests, and to offer a sacrifice for their cleansing. He commanded them to go, therefore, as being already healed, and, that they might, so to speak, bear witness to the priests, as rulers of the Jews, and ever envious of His glory, that wonderfully, and beyond their hope, they had been delivered from their misfortune by Christ's willing that they should be healed (Cf. Luke 5:12). ... The nine then, as being Jews, falling into a thankless forgetfulness, did not return to give glory to God; by which He shows that Israel was hard of heart, and utterly unthankful: but the stranger – for as being a Samaritan he was of foreign race, having been brought there from Assyria, for the phrase “between Samaria and Galilee” is not without meaning – returned with a loud voice to glorify God. It shows, therefore, that the Samaritans were grateful, but that the Jews, even when benefited, were ungrateful.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone ☺

A teacher asked the children in her Sunday school class, "If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale, and gave all my money to church, would I get to heaven?"

"No!" the children all answered.

"If I cleaned the church everyday, mowed the lawn, and kept everything neat and tidy, would I get to go to heaven?"

Again the answer was "NO!"

"Well", she continued, "then how can I get to heaven?"

In the back of the room, a 5 year old boy shouted, "You got to be dead."
