

Loving Our Enemies

Those who close their eyes to the demands of love fall asleep in the desire for worldly pleasures. Therefore, be watchful. Eating, drinking, carousing, gambling, and hunting are pleasures, but evils of every kind follow in the wake of these vanities. No one can deny that they are enjoyable, but love of God's law must come first, for to love God means to keep His commandments. Which commandments? You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, and you must love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

My brothers and sisters, to widen our hearts, we need not depend upon ourselves. Ask God to help you love one another – to love everyone without exception, not just your friends, but enemies as well; not because they are your brothers and sisters in Christ, but so that they may be. Pray that you may always have a warm, fraternal love for other people, both for those who have become your brothers and sisters, and for your enemies, that they may become such. Whenever you love brothers or sisters you love friends, for they are already with you, joined to you in faith unity. If they live virtuously you love them as people who have been changed from enemies into brothers and sisters. But suppose you love people who do not yet believe in Christ, or if they do, yet believe as the devil believes – they believe in Christ, but still do not love him. You must love just the same, you must love even people like that, you must love them as brothers and sisters. They are not such yet, but you must love them so that they may become such through your kindness. All our love, then, must be fraternal.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone ☺

The monastery of silence was led by an ancient Abbot, who took the brothers vow of silence very seriously. One Brother John entered the monastery and took his silence vow, the Abbot reminded him, "You are welcome here as long as you like, but you may not speak until I direct you to do so."

Brother John lived in the monastery for a full year before the Abbot said to him, "Brother John, you have been here a year now, you may speak two words."

Brother John said, "Hard bed." So the Abbot got him a better bed.

The next year, Brother John was called by the Abbot. "You may say another two words, Brother John."

"Cold food", announced Brother John, so the Abbot promised the food would improve.

On his third anniversary at the monastery the Abbot again called brother John into his office. "You may say two more words today."

"I quit," announced Brother John.

"It is probably for the best," said the Abbot. "All you have done since you got here is complain."

Do Something Beautiful for God by Mother Theresa

When you look at the inner workings of electrical things, you often see small and big wires, new and old, cheap and expensive, all lined up. Until the current passes through them there will be no light. That wire is you and me. The current is God. We have the power to let the current pass through us, use us, produce the light of the world. Or we can refuse to be used and allow darkness to spread.

Happy Birthday! La mulți ani!!
