

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Icon of Raising the Widow's Son

The Church, the Sorrowing Mother

Although there is grave sin that you cannot wash away yourself with the tears of your penitence, let the mother of the church weep for you. She who intercedes for all as a widowed mother for only sons is she who suffers with the spiritual grief of nature when she perceives her children urged on to death by mortal sins.

We are heart of her heart, for there is also a spiritual heart that Paul has, saying, "Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ." We are the heart of the church, since we are members of his Body, of his flesh and of his bones. Let the pious mother grieve, let the crowd, too, help. Let not only the crowd but also a multitude feel pity for a good parent.

Already at the funeral you will arise, already will you be released from the sepulcher; the attendants at your funeral will stand still, you will begin to speak words of life, all will be afraid; for very many are corrected by the example of one. They will praise God, who has bestowed upon us such great help for the avoidance of death.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone ☺

Charlie Jones was a pious man who had been head usher at Central Church for 75 years. On his 105th birthday, he stopped going to church. Alarmed by the old fellow's absence after so many years of faithful service, Pastor Anderson went to see him.

He found Charlie in excellent health, so the minister asked, “How come after all these years we don't see you anymore?”

The old man looked around and lowered his voice, “I'll tell you, Pastor,” he whispered, “when I get to be 90, I expected God to take me home any day. But then I got to be 95, then 100, then one of 105. So, I figured that God is very busy and must have forgotten about me, and I don't want to remind him.”

Do Something Beautiful for God by Mother Theresa

From the cross, Jesus cried out, “I thirst.” His thirst was for souls even as He hung there dying, alone, despised. Who will bring those souls to Him? Can you and I continue to stand by as mere spectators? Can we pass by and do nothing?
