

TENTH SUNDAY OF LUKE

Healing of the Disabled Woman

Moreover, in this infirm woman, it is like the figure of the Church which presents itself: when it has fulfilled the measure of the Law and of the resurrection, in this endless rest, raised to the summit of greatness, she will no longer be able to experience the curvature of our infirmity. And this woman could be healed only by means of the Law and grace: the Law by its precepts, in baptism the grace by which, dead to the world, we are resurrected for Christ; for in the ten words is the completion of the Law, in the number eight the fullness of the resurrection. So this work of a Sabbath signifies what will happen: whoever has fulfilled the Law and grace will be rid of the miseries of this crippled body through the mercy of Christ. This is why sanctification was first given in the figure by Moses, because the practice of future sanctification and spiritual observance was to abstain from works of the century. Even God rested from the works of the world: not of (all) works, since his activity is perpetual and continual, as the Son says: "My Father is still working now, and I too are acting" (Jn, V, 17), so that the example of God will cease for us the works of the world, not those of religion. It is for lack of understanding that the head of the Synagogue did not want anyone to be healed on the Sabbath, while the Sabbath is the image of future recreation? So it is not the good works, but the bad ones, which are idle? And that for this reason we are required to carry no burden, errors, and not being fasting, good works, to celebrate the sabbaths that will take place after death?

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

The following is a confidential report on several candidates being considered for a ministry position.

Adam: Good man but has problems with his wife. Also, one reference to how he and his wife enjoys skinny dipping.

Noah: prone to unrealistic building projects.

Abraham: There are rumors about his strange relationship to his wife.

Joseph: A big thinker, but a bit of a braggart. Believes in dream interpreting, has a prison record, and has been accused of adultery.

Moses: a modest and meek man, but a poor communicator - even stutters at times. Sometimes blows his stack and acts rashly.

David: The most promising candidate of all until we discovered his affair with his neighbor's wife. His kids are out of control. Worse yet, he's a proponent of upbeat musical expressions.
