

The Myrrh-Bearing Women

The Sunday of the Myrrh-Bearing Women ... reminds us that the love and faithfulness of a few individuals shone brightly in the midst of hopeless darkness. It calls us to ensure that in this world love and faithfulness do not disappear or die out. It judges our lack of courage, our fear, our endless and servile rationalizations. The mysterious Joseph and Nicodemus, and these women who go to the grave at dawn, occupy so little space in the gospels. Precisely here, however, is where the eternal fate of each of us is decided.

Today, I think, we are especially in need of recovering this love and basic human loyalty. For we have entered a time when even these are being discredited by harmful concepts of the person and human life now prevailing in this world. For centuries, the world still had the weak, but still flickering and shining, glow from that faithfulness, love and co-suffering which was silently present at the sufferings of the Man cast aside by all. And we need to cling, as if to a last thread, to everything in our world that still thrives on the warm light of simple, earthly, human love. Love does not ask about theories and ideologies, but speaks to the heart and soul. Human history has rumbled along, kingdoms have risen and fallen, cultures have been built and bloody wars fought, but what has remained unchanging on earth and in this troubled and tragic history is the bright image of the woman. An image of care, self-giving, love, compassion. Without this presence, without this light, our world, regardless of its successes and accomplishments, would be a world of terror.

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions. See the enclosed flier.

See the enclosed Fish Fry report. Thank you to all who helped!

The winner of our 50/50 Progressive Raffle was Linda Humm. She donated her part of $131.00 back to the Church to help the poor projects.

Parish events:

We will host the Curbside pick-up St. George Dinner on Sunday, April 25 between noon and 2pm. The menu consists of Chicken Stew, Mamaliga with cheese, Cabbage rolls, Green beans, Dessert. Orders can be placed online at stgeorgeoh.org or call Ann in the office at 330-492-8413. Thank you for your support!

Ladies Auxiliary Donations:

Thank you to all who donated a lily in honor or memory of loved ones. The church looks beautiful because of you. Attached in this week's bulletin is a list of intentions. God Bless You.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

The top reasons why men need to join the choir.
6. Singing in a choir is one of the few activities for me that doesn't require electronic equipment or expensive power tools.

7. For the fitness buffs, singing in the choir is not only heart healthy, it's soul healthy. There are no monthly membership fees, and it's a lot easier on the knees than jogging.
8. If you think you've already done everything there is to do and there are no extreme challenges left, try staying on pitch with our tenors and basses.
9. Choir rehearsals last half as long as a professional football games, but it is at least twice as satisfying. No rehearsals on Monday night.
10. When people ask you whether you've been behaving yourself, you can say with the utmost sincerity, "Hey, I'm a choir boy."

Word of Life

"Christ invites us to trust in his invisible grace that prompts us to the generosity of supernatural charity, as we identify with everyone who is ill: 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me' (Mt 25:40)."

For all those in hospice:

May the loving accompaniment of family and friends
bear witness to the gift of their lives;

Let us pray to the Lord, Lord have mercy.

ROMANIAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE
Eparchy of St. George in Canton

Office of the Bishop

STRENGTHENING
THE CHURCH AT HOME

April 8, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In their 2000 pastoral letter Responsibility, Rehabilitation, and Restoration, the bishops of the United States called the faithful to embrace an approach to criminal justice that takes into account the dignity of crime victims and their families, communities, and offenders.

The Catholic Home Missions-funded Diocese of Santa Rosa is answering this call for an approach that upholds justice and healing in its six counties of northwestern California, stretching from Napa in the south along the coastline to the Oregon border. The diocese's Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries program (www.restorejusticesantarosa.org) works to fulfill the bishops' vision through various activities that include support for inmates reentering society, as well as pastoral ministries for crime victims and their families, justice system personnel, and inmates. The program's broad range of goals are being implemented, expanded, and refined yearly with financial assistance from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. When you participate in the appeal, you join in the Church's healing mission of mercy to all.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Indeed, our own diocese depends quite heavily upon Catholic Home Missions funding. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year, realizing that by supporting this appeal, you directly support your own Church. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home—your Church!

Sincerely in Christ-God,

(Most Reverend) John Michael Botean, DD
Bishop of the Eparchy of St. George in Canton

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Right now, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.
