

SUNDAY OF ALL SAINTS

Icon of All Saints

From the Fathers

When you perceive that God is chastising you, fly not to his enemies . . . but to his friends, the martyrs, the saints, and those who were pleasing to him, and who have great power . . .

St. John Chrysostom

A Christian people celebrates together in religious solemnity the memorials of the martyrs, both to encourage their being imitated and so that it can share in their merits and be aided by their prayers.

St. Augustine of Hippo

In this way is he [the true Christian] always pure for prayer. He also prays in the society of angels, as being already of angelic rank, and he is never out of their holy keeping; and though he pray alone, he has the choir of the saints standing with him.

St. Clement of Alexandria

In addition to the study and true knowledge of the Scriptures are needed a good life and pure soul and virtue in Christ, so that the mind, journeying in this path, may be able to obtain and apprehend what it desires, in so far as human nature is able to learn about God the Word. For without a pure mind and a life modeled on the saints, no one can apprehend the words of the saints.

St. Athanasius the Great

The divine Scripture likewise says that the souls of the just are in God's hand and death cannot lay hold of them. For death is rather the sleep of the saints than their death. "For they travailed in this life and shall to the end," and "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." What then, is more precious than to be in the hand of God. For God is Life and Light, and those who are in God's hand are in life and light.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone ☺

FOR SUPER BOWL SUNDAY:

“Quarterback Sneak” - church members quietly leaving during the invitation.

“Drop leg” - what many children do with their bulletins during worship.

“Halftime” – the period between Sunday school and worship when many choose to leave.

“Benchwarmer” - those who do not sing, pray, work or apparently do anything.

“Backfield in motion” - making a trip up the aisle to the back (restroom or water fountain) during the service.

“Staying in the pocket” - what happens to a lot of money that should be given to the Lord's work.

“Two-minute warning” – the point at which you realize the sermon is almost over and begin to gather up your belongings.

“Instant replay” - the preacher misplaces and notes and falls back on last Sunday's illustrations.

“Sudden death” - what happens to the congregation's attention span if the preacher goes over time.

“Trap” - you are called on to pray, and your mind is a million miles away.

“End run” – getting out of church fast by skirting around behind the pastor at the door.

“Flex defense” – the ability to allow absolutely nothing during the sermon to affect your life.

“Halfback option” - the decision of 50% of the congregation not to return for the evening service.

“Blitz” - the rush for restaurants following the closing prayer.

Word of Life

“In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life.”

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Live the Gospel of Life”

May society come to a deeper understanding and respect for the human person, who is created, redeemed, and made holy by the gracious action of the Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
Let us pray to the Lord, Lord have mercy.

Veterans, Thank you for your service!
