

The Apostles' Call and Ours

But note both their faith and their obedience. For though they were in the midst of their work (and you know how time consuming a chore fishing is), when they heard His command they did not delay or procrastinate. They did not say, "Let us return home, and talk things over with our family." Instead, "they left everything behind and followed," even as Elisha did when he followed Elijah. For Christ seeks this kind of obedience from us, such that we delay not even for a moment, though something absolutely most necessary should vehemently press in on us.

St. John Chrysostom

The kingdom of heaven has no price tag on it. It is worth as much as you have. For Zacchaeus it was worth half of what he owned, because the other half that he had unjustly pocketed he promised to restore four-fold. For Peter and Andrew it was worth the nets and vessel they had left behind; for the widow it was worth two copper coins; for another it was worth a cup of cold water. So, as we said, the kingdom of heaven is worth as much as you have.

St. Gregory the Great

Like Peter, Andrew, James and John, we have been called to discipleship. As such, we are given the name of "Christian." But are we conscious what that name stands for, what responsibility comes with it? It is more than just a title or a label. To be a disciple of Christ, to bear the name of Christian, compels us to take on the responsibility – regardless of the difficulty and cost – of living the Gospel every moment of our lives.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

Watching Sunday school pupil Willie making faces at the kids around him, teacher Miss Betsy stopped the lesson and said, “Willie, when I was your age, I was told that if I made funny ugly faces, my face would freeze that way.”

Bobby looked up and replied innocently, “Well, Miss Betsy, you can't say you weren't warned.”

Oriente Lumen XXV Continues as a Virtual Conference

With the continuing health pandemic, we will hold the Oriente Lumen XXV Conference as an online virtual event on June 22, 2021 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm EDT.

The topic this year will be:

“Liturgy and Scripture: Praying the Word of God”

The success of last year indicates our modified approach can be effective: we had 100 participants from 8 countries for a lively 2-hour discussion among the speakers including an historic video connection with St. Catherine’s Monastery on Mt. Sinai, the first ever of its kind.

Confirmed plenary speakers for this year will include:

Archbishop Job of Telmessos

Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople, Geneva, Switzerland

Father Andrew Summerson

Communications Director, Eparchy of Parma, Munster, IN

Father Ted Pulcini

Antiochian Orthodox Church, Chambersburg, PA

Dr. Sr. Vassa Larin

Host of “Coffee with Sister Vassa”, Russian Orthodox Church, Vienna, Austria

Father Marco Benini

The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC

Dr. Daniel Stevens, Director of the Scholars Initiative

Brian Hyland, Curator of Latin and Greek Manuscripts

Museum of the Bible, Washington, DC

Additional videos about Liturgy from the OLV library by

Metropolitan Kallistos of Diokleia

Archimandrite Robert Taft, SJ

Bishop John Michael Botean, Moderator

Romanian Catholic Diocese of St. George, Canton, OH

The speakers will pre-record their plenary talks on video which we will make available to registered participants through our YouTube channel in early June. Some additional videos will be made available about the Divine Liturgy by Metropolitan Kallistos and Archimandrite Robert Taft, SJ (of blessed memory) from the OLV library. We also hope to have a first-time ever video walking tour of the display of scripture holdings at the Museum of the Bible in Washington, DC.

On Tuesday, June 22 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm, we will hold an interactive, live panel video discussion among the speakers with Bishop John Michael Botean as moderator. We will collect questions in advance and the speakers will also review each other’s presentations beforehand to discuss. The interactive conference will be recorded and made available to registered participants after the conference in case you cannot view the live event.

You can register online at our website:

<https://olfoundation.net/conferences/ol-xxv/>

Registration and advance access to the online videos and live conference is $50/person before June 1st, and $75 after June 1st. All registrations are due by June 20th. The videos of last year can be viewed on YouTube here:
