

They All Ate and Were Satisfied

Our Lord in a desert place changed a few loaves into many, and at Cana turned water into wine. Thus before the time came to give men and women His own Body and Blood to feed on, He accustomed their palates to His bread and wine, giving them a taste of transitory bread and wine to teach them to delight in His Life-giving Body and Blood.

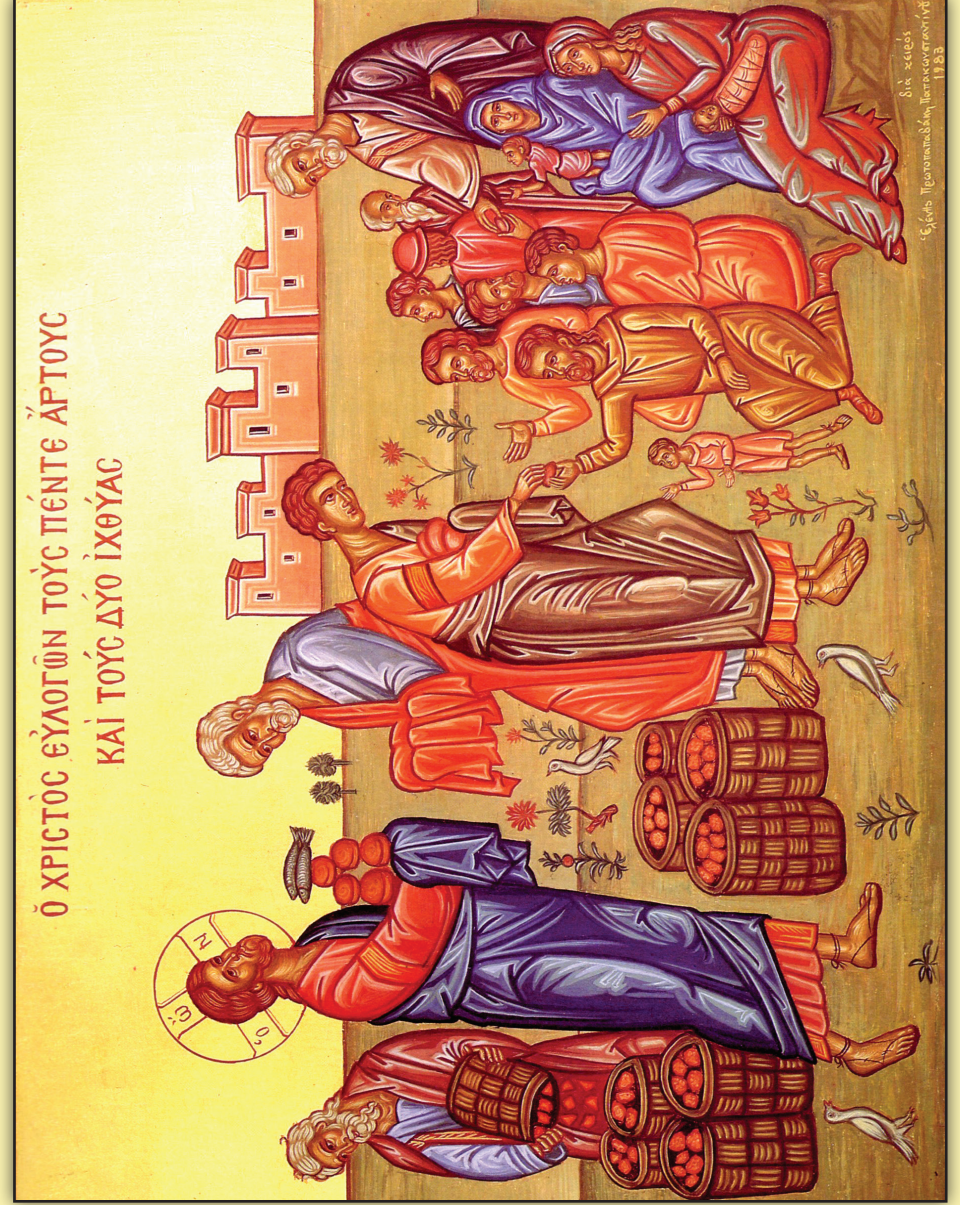

He gave them things of little value for nothing to make them understand that His supreme gift would be given yet more freely. He gave them for nothing what they could have bought from Him, what in fact they wanted to buy, to teach them that He asked them for no payment.

When it was not permitted them to give Him the price of bread and wine, which they could have done, they certainly could not pay Him for His Body and Blood.

Moreover, as well as giving freely He lovingly coaxed us, offering us these small things without charge to attract us and cause us to go and receive something greater and beyond all price. He awakened our desire by things pleasing to the palate in order to draw us to that which gives life to the soul. He gave a sweet taste to the wine he created to show how great is the treasure hidden in His Life-giving Blood.

Announcements

Many thanks to all at St. George for the cards you sent, the prayers you offered, and the candles you lit for my recovery. After a return to Cleveland Clinic to get my heart rhythm fixed (it's OK now!) I am back home and back on track. At the moment, I'm not sure that visitors are a good idea—maybe next week. However, I am practically back to work at home, so it's not that I'm languishing in my sickbed! I am not able to drive, and it seems prudent to somewhat isolate these days until I'm all healed, since they told me that post-surgery, I am officially "immunocompromised." I feel great, though, and want to stay that way! Thanks once again, and I'll be writing more soon. Many blessings! Bishop John Michael

St. George Cathedral plans to host a Homecoming/Parishioner Appreciation Picnic in September. Pastoral Council would like to extend personal invitations to this get-together for people who have grown up in the parish and we have not seen in while. Please share phone numbers, addresses and names of people who you know grew up in the parish, who were baptized here, who had parastas here, etc. Write or email your list to Johnnie Maier jmaierclerk@yahoo.com. Thank you for your help to make St. George a successful parish/family!

+Irene Pontones' funeral was held on July 27 at the graveside at Liberty Church Cemetery in Paris Township. May her memory be eternal! Please keep Julie and Debbie in your prayers.

Parish events:

Pastoral Council will meet on Tuesday, August 2 at 6:30pm in the small hall to discuss and prepare for the Festival.

The Stewardship Committee will meet and hold the audit at 6pm on Wednesday, August 3.

There are Festival Raffle tickets to sell. Each family is asked to sell at least four books and more if possible! Return ticket stubs with name, address phone number and money to Ann in the office. A book of six tickets is $5. There are three prizes of $500, $250 and $100.

Share flier(s) and take more from the narthex table to advertise the Festival! It takes all of us advertising to get as many guests as possible!

The week or two prior to the Festival, we would like to organize distribution of fliers to various churches on the windshields. Please sign up on the list in the narthex with the name of the church, time of the service the you will put fliers, number of fliers needed, the date(s) you plan to go and your name(s), so we can best prepare the number of fliers needed. Thank you for your help to get the work out!!

Our Festival will take place on August 28, 2022. More details will follow after Pastoral Council meeting. Volunteers are needed. See P-sa. Gabi, if you are available to work.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone ☺

Deacon Roberts was leaving the morning service on Sunday morning. At the door, the pastor reached out and shook Roberts's hand. "By the way, Deacon, you need to join the army of the Lord."

"I'm already in the army of the Lord , Pastor."

"Then why do I see you only at Christmas and Easter?"

Deacon Roberts whispered back, "I'm in the Secret Service."

Do Something Beautiful for God by Mother Theresa

I feel that we too often focus on the negative aspects of life, on what is bad. If we were more willing to see the good and the beautiful things that surround us we would be able to transform society. It begins in the family. From there, we can help transform our next door neighbors with loving service, than others who live in our neighborhood and city. We can bring peace and love to the world. The whole world is hungry for these things, and we can each play a small role in feeding this great hunger.
