

Explanation to the Emperor

There is nothing in the holy, inspired Scripture about the death of Mary, the holy Mother of God. But we know from ancient and wholly reliable tradition that at the time she so gloriously fell asleep, all the holy Apostles, who were traveling the world for the salvation of the peoples, were lifted up in a single instant of time and were gathered at Jerusalem; and as they stood by her, they saw a vision of angels, and heard the divine chanting of the higher powers ... Her body, which had been God's dwelling place, was brought for burial amidst the singing of the angels and the Apostles, and laid to rest in a coffin in Gethsemane; and the angelic dancing and singing continued without pause in that place for three days. But after three days, the song of the angels ceased; the Apostles were there, and since one of them, Thomas, had not been present (for her burial and came at the end of three days) and wished to reverence that body which had housed God, they opened the coffin. And they could not find her body, which had been the object of such praise; all that they found were her burial wrappings. And being overcome by the ineffable fragrance that came out of the wrappings, they closed the coffin again. Amazed by this miraculous discovery, they could only draw a single conclusion: the one Who had deigned to become flesh in her own person, and to take His humanity from her, the one Who willed to be born in human flesh as God the Word, the Lord of glory, and Who had preserved her virginity intact even after childbirth, now chose, after her departure from this world, to honor her immaculate and pure body with the gift of incorruptibility, and with a change of state even before the common, universal resurrection.

Announcements

This week our special collection supports the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Your donation today helps restore the Church and build the future in more than 25 countries still struggling to recover from former communist rule. Funds from this Collection support reconstruction, education, formation, and poverty outreach. Please be generous to the Collection today. For more information, please visit www.usccb.org/ccee.

Please keep Theresa Orlando in your prayers. After further tests, they discovered that Theresa has cancer in the bones which made them weaker. It originated from the lungs and moved into the bones. Terri and Tony have asked me to communicate this to you and to ask you to keep them, especially Theresa in your prayers. When anyone receives this kind of news it's hard to always answer many questions that lots of people might have. So, please, be gentle with your questions if you call either Tony or Terri. Thank you to all of you who prayed for Theresa during this time, and please do not stop now – now is the time to intensify our prayers!!

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

A Sunday school teacher asked her class, "What was Jesus' mother's name?"

Little Susan answered, "Mary."

The teacher then asked, “And who knows what Jesus' father's name was?”
Little Burt called out, “The Verge.”

Confused, the teacher asked, “Where did you get that, Burt?”

The little boy smiled and responded, “You know they are always talking about The Verge ‘n Mary.”

Word of Life

“Abortion affects countless marriages more than many people recognize. But there is no doubt that God will bring great healing to those who trust in his infinite mercy. If a past abortion can be acknowledged and addressed, a married couple can make great strides in experiencing even more fully God’s design that ‘the two shall become one’ (Mt 19:5).” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Healing within Marriage from an Abortion” (Used with permission.)

For those suffering after abortion:

May they know that the Lord desires to bring healing,
to replace their pain with His mercy and peace;

Let us pray to the Lord, Lord have mercy.

Happy Birthday! La mulți ani!!
