

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Icon of the Transfiguration of Our Lord -- August 6th

On the Mountain

He led them up to the mountain that He might also reveal to them Who this Son is, and Whose Son is He. For when He asked them: Whom do men say that the Son of man is, they said to Him: some Elias, some others Jeremias, or one of the prophets. And so He led them up into a high mountain, and showed them that He was not Elias, but the God of Elias; that neither was He Jeremias, but He that had sanctified Jeremias in his mother's womb; that neither was He one of the prophets, but the Lord of the prophets, and He that had sent them.

And He showed them also that He was the Creator of heaven and earth and the Lord of the living and the dead; for He spoke to the heavens, and they sent down Elias; He made a sign to the earth and raised Moses to life again... For God the Word dwelt in the womb of the Virgin: and the fire of His Divinity consumed not the members of the virginal body; and in that dwelling place she kept watch over him for the space of nine months. He dwelt in the womb of the Virgin, not despising our nature; and from it God came forth clothed in human flesh, that He might redeem us.

He took them up into a high mountain apart, that He might also show them the glory of His Divinity, and that He might declare Himself the Redeemer of Israel, as He had foretold by the prophets, and so that they would not be scandalized in Him when they would see Him in the Passion He had taken upon Himself; and which for our sakes He was about to suffer in His human nature. For they knew that He was man, but they knew not that He was God. They knew Him as the Son of Mary, and as a man sharing their daily life in the world. On the mountain He revealed to them that He was the Son of God, and Himself God.

A new pastor visited the children's Sunday school department after standing quietly at the back for a few minutes, he asked the youngsters, "Who tore down the walls of Jericho?"

"It wasn't me!" shouted young Tommy.

The pastor was unfazed and repeated, "Come on now, who tore down the walls of Jericho?"

The teacher took the pastor to one side. "Look, Pastor, Tommy's a good boy. If he said he didn't do it, he didn't do it. I believe him."

The pastor couldn't comprehend what he was hearing, and later that day he related this story to the Director of Christian Education. The director frowned. "I know we have had trouble "Yes, Pastor, I can see your problem. But I suggest we take the money from the general fund to pay for the walls and leave it at that."

Do Something Beautiful for God by Mother Theresa

We must know that we have been created for greater things, not just to be a number in the world, not just to go for degrees and diplomas. Not just to work and accomplish. We have been created to love and to be loved. This is easy to forget amidst the business of life. You have been created to love and to be loved. Make Love a priority.

Serve God joyfully! Let there be no sadness in your life. The only true sorrow is sin.

Happy Birthday! La multi ani!!
