

SUNDAY AFTER THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Icon of Simon Carrying the Cross of Christ

Carrying Your Cross or Your Cross Carrying You?

Turn, rather, to these teachings, my very dear friend: take up your cross and follow the Lord. For, when I noticed that you were being slowed down in your divine purpose by your preoccupation with domestic cares, I felt that you were being carried and dragged along by your cross rather than that you were carrying it.

What else does the cross mean than the mortality of this flesh? This is our very own cross which the Lord commands us to carry that we may be as well armed as possible in following him. We suffer momentarily until death is swallowed up in victory. Then this cross itself will be crucified. The cross will be nailed to the fear of God. We would hardly be able to carry it now if it forever resisted us with free and unfettered limbs. There is no other way for you to follow the Lord except by carrying it, for how can you follow him if you are not his?

From the Letters of St. Augustine

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

A minister from the city was filling the pulpit in a small community. After the service he was invited over to the house of one of the members for lunch. In the course of the conversation, he talked about his family back home, and how his son won first place in the 100-yard dash.

"I know just how you must feel", declared the man of the house. "I remember how pleased I was last year when our pig got the blue ribbon at the fair!"

Do Something Beautiful for God by Mother Theresa

Forgiveness is at the heart of healthy relationships. Excuse rather than accuse. Forgive and ask to be forgiven. Forgiveness is a beautiful gift to give to those who hurt us.

Happy Birthday! La mulți ani!!
